Fall's cooling breezes will bring the travelers home, summer's lull and low prices in the real estate market will turn to activity and a stiffening of prices will follow shortly. The buyers have returned and the bargains will soon disappear.
Has it occurred to you that with the Moffat road now positively assured, and the contracts for the great Western Pacific railway let, Salt Lake City is the greatest railroad center west of Denver.
None of the coast cities have nearly so many independent trunk lines. Railroads make cities, and it is therefore certain that the city will continue to add many large enterprises yearly, and will rapidly progress as it keeps apace with the development of the great empire of which she must ever be the capital, commercial, financial and railroad center.
Moral: Supply your needs now, either for homes or investments, at the very reasonable prices now prevailing. The choice properties and locations will soon be much higher and scarcer.

INVESTMENTS.
Two of the finest near-in apartment house sites to be found in the city, and at prices that will astonish and please you. Call and figure on these early; they'll not last.
